

The article released last night in the Suburban Life shared that the District 66 School Board supported the Lemont Road Project, and that is not accurate. Dr. Wise has been working with all parties to make safety enhancements to the intersection at Plainfield and Lemont Road for District 66 students. The D66 Board has not endorsed the Distribution Center project.